MummersFest and Finale

Volunteer Job Descriptions 2009/2010

The annual MummersFest and Finale ~ celebrating the oldest folk parade in Philadelphia, will take place on Monday December 28th through January 1st 2010. You can be part of this exciting cultural event by serving as a volunteer in one of many capacities. No experience is needed to volunteer, but if you have a specific talent, please let us know. Each volunteer will be given an official Festival t-shirt.

Pre Festival Jobs

Office Assistant - General clerical assistance is needed in the weeks prior to the Festival. If you have computer skills (Microsoft Word/Excel) we can use your help on various projects.

Poster/Brochure Distribution - Help spread the word - poster and programs will be need to be disseminated to local businesses (some walking and some driving might be required-a travel allowance can be provided).

During the Festival Jobs

Festival Headquarters - During the Festival, help will be needed to assure that information about the festival is provided to those stopping in, or calling, the Festival Headquarters. This is a great position for someone with limited standing capacity.

Greeters - Individuals are needed at various events to serve as greeters, answering questions and distributing programs. The greeters might also be asked to circulate through the crowd and select participants to complete a brief survey. These positions will be required to stand for periods of time.

Jack of all Trades - You'll never know what jobs will be needed at the last minute, but these volunteers will be on hand to run various errands as identified (a travel allowance can be provided). This position requires mobility.

Bucket Brigade - These volunteers will provide the opportunity for Festival goers to support the Festival with a donation. They will also provide information about becoming a loyal "Friend of the Brigades." This Position requires mobility.

Merchandise Sales - Assist with sales of the Festival merchandise. Some standing will be required.

Production Assistant – This position requires extensive physical labor. Setting up chairs or tables at events and other needs at the festival Main stage as identified will be done by these on-call assistants.
